This is so brilliant- it just might make someone's day

When doing your Christmas cards this year, take one card and send it to this address. If we pass this on and everyone sends one card, think of how many cards these wonderful special people who have sacrificed so much would get. Twass the night before Karate

'Twas the night before Karate class, when all through the houses,
Not a white-belt was stirring not even the mouses.

The do-boks were hung by the chimney with care,
In hopes that Master DonVito soon would be there.

The children were nestled all snug in their beds,
While visions of flying side-kicks danced in their heads.

When in the Dojang there arose such a clatter,
They sprang from their beds to see what was the matter.

They threw on their do-boks, and tied on their belts,
Ate ten Christmas cookies and some Chanukah gelt.

When, what to their wondering eyes should they sight,
But Master DonVito all dressed in white.

Then in through the doors his instructors they came,
Master DonVito shouted, and called them by name.

Now, Mr. Bailey! Now, Ms. -Lee! Now, Mr. C!
On Figueroa, on AJ and Bailey! Come teach for the day.

With a snap of his fingers, he said, "Class line up fast,"
The kids moved like lightning, not wanting to be last.

He made them do blocks and one million punches,
Jump-kicks and forms and push-ups by the bunches.

And just when they thought they couldn't survive,
Class time was over, their parents arrived.

So with a final bow and a hearty "Tang Soo!"
They high-fived the teachers and off they flew.

He waved as they left and gave a loud, "Ki-Ya!"
Happy Christmas, Merry Chanukah,
Happy New Year, I'll See Ya!"
(As retold by Mr. Bailey 12/04)
